

Privacy Statement

Obverse is committed to protecting your privacy. This policy outlines our personal information handling practices. If you provide us with personal information, we will treat it in accordance with this policy.

Information that is collected

The website collects only that information which is deemed pertinent, and which is volunteered by the visitor. This includes information such as site registrations and/or contact information, of those who communicate with us. We do not send e-mails, or any personal information, as a form of solicitation. We may, however; contact you in response to any questions and/or comments you might have about our products and services. Obverse never sells or rents personal information, or customer information, to third parties. Information provided is only used by Obverse.

With respect to links

Obverse website may contain links to internal or external website locations in order to better facilitate your visit or clarify your query. However, Obverse accepts no responsibility regarding the contents and/or information practices of third party websites. This statement does not apply to any websites that are directly linked from our website.

Non-Personal Information

We sometimes collect non-personal information from visitors to our sites to help us provide better customer service and manage website traffic. This anonymous, and non-personal information, is used to analyze how a visitor uses our website, so that we may better serve our visitors. We maintain the highest levels of confidentiality for this information.

Feel free to contact us with any questions or concerns: info@obverse.net